

The Jack O'Neill Memorial Junior Golf Championship will be a highly competitive, limited field junior golf event with boy's and girl's divisions hosted annually at Diamondhead Country Club. This 36-hole event will prove to be a great opportunity to showcase many of the most talented high school golfers in our region. This event will include one practice round on Friday prior to event, two tournament rounds, range balls prior to each tournament round, tee gift, and awards. Food specials will also be available at Diamondhead Country Club for players, parents, and spectators during the event.

DATES: January 30-31, 2021

VENUE: Diamondhead Country Club's Pine Course has hosted the PGA Tour Champions Rapiscan Systems Qualifiers, the Gulf Coast Open, the Gulf Coast Amateur, the Swingthought.com Tour, and the Emerald Coast Golf Tour. The PGA Tour Champions players have been provided very positive reviews on DCC's Pine Course and the greens are consistently among the best on the Mississippi Gulf Coast.
